Ap Attempt to Mob Ex-Priest Slattery and His Wife.

The Militia Ordered Out and Several Bayenet Charges Were Necessary to Dis-perse the Angry Mob of Five Thou-sand—The Lecturers Gnarded.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 27 .- This has been the most exciting night in the history of Savannah. For five hours the city has trembled on the verge of bloody religious riots. The entire white military force of the city, except the artillery, has been on duty.

There are ten infantry companies and the Georgia Hussars, the latter being dismounted. A mob, estimated at from 3,000 to 5,000, the greater part being Catholics, has challenged their forbearance to the extreme. But for the coolness of Maj. Herman Myers and the officers commanding the troops the streets would have run with blood.

Bayonet charges were made several times to clear the streets, but the mob which gathered about the Masonie temple, one of the principal buildings of the city, and situated in the heart of Savannah, stubbornly refused to re-

Bx-Priest Slattery and his wife, said to be an ex-nun, caused all the excitement. Police guarded Masonic hall where they were to speak. When Shattery arrived there were 400 people in the hall. Soon after he began speaking an immense mob, estimated at 5,000, swept toward the hall and began breaking the windows with rocks.

Mayor Meyers, seeing the mob's ugly disposition, ordered the riot alarm sounded, and brought out the militia. Ten companies and the Georgia Hussars responded, but before they arrived every window in the hall was

"Down with Slattery!"

"Death to the renegade!"

"Kill him!" These were the cries heard on every hand.

At 9:30 o'clock the militia arrived and a charge with fixed bayonets was made. The mob moved back sullenly, and refused to disperse. Vicar General Cafferty was summoned, and he addressed a portion of the infuriated people, telling them the man Slattery could do their religion no harm, and that they were disgracing themselves and their religion by their actions.

This had no effect whatever. They wanted Slattery, and he soon appeared guarded by eight police. The mob hissed and shouted, but the soldiers closed in about him and ascorted him to his hotel. A strong guard was placed about the hotel and another guard escorted Mrs. Slattery from the hall. It was several hours before the mob dispersed, vowing that they would yet have Slattery's Trouble is feared Wednesday.

The trouble was precipitated by the ex-priest's lecture on the Roman Catholic priesthood. For several days efforts have been made by members of he Ancient Order of Hibernians to revoke the ex-priest's permit to deliver the lecture, but the mayor, upon legal advice, replied that it could not

The lecture Tuesday night contained no offensive language, but the crowd which had gathered on the outside were out for trouble. The lecture was over by the time the military arrived. and most of the audience had left the hall. The crowd was largely spectators. A portion of it kept yelling and hurling bricks at the windows of the ball where the ex-priest was. A few shots were fired in the air by the rioters, but no one was hurt. The electric lights around the hall were broken by misalles, and for a time the neighborhood was in darkness.

After the military arrived on the scene there was comparative quiet.

Bimetallism in Parliament. LOEDON, Feb. 27 .- Robert L. Everett, liberal, moved in the house of commons Tuesday the bimetallic resolution, which was approved on Friday inst by the parliamentary committee of the Bimetallie league. The resolution in substance was that "this house regards with increasing apprehension the constant fluctuations and growing divergence in the relative value of gold and silver, and heartily concurs in the recent expression of opinion upon the part of the government of France and the government and parliament of Germany in regard to the serious evils resulting therefrom. It therefore urges upon the government the desirability of cooperation with other nations in an international conference to consider what measures can be taken to mitigate or relieve these evila"

ARMED ROBBERS

Enter a Chicago Hotel Looking for Boodle,

But Secure Only a Small Amount. CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Six robbers, who were armed with revolvers, committed a daring robbery in a small hotel at 45 Clark street early Tuesday morning. They forced open the outer door of the hotel and then opened the door leading into a room occupied by Charles and William Thompson and Edward Dahl.

Charles and William Thompson are brothers, and a few weeks ago inherited $3,000 each from an aunt who died recently at London, England. They are certain that the robbers were aware of this fact, and that they had planned the robbery to secure this money, or whatever portion of it the young men might have had in their

The robbers only secured a small sum of money and were frightened away while making further search for money by the screams of Charles Thompson. The manner in which the robbery had been planned leaves no doubt the men expected to find a large sum of money in the room.

CHINAMEN FINED.

A Case of More Than Usual Interest Develops at Indianapolis, Ind.

Indianapolis, Feb. 27 .- Two Chinamen, arrested several days ago while administering opium to the inmates of a resort in this city, were Tuesday fined $500 each and sentenced to six months in the workhouse by Police Judge Stubbs. The evidence show that they conducted a transient opium joint.

The case attracted a great deal of attention among Chinamen all over the country. An interpreter was brought from Louisville, and a mysterious person, claiming to be a Jap from the legation at Washington, has appeared on the scene. He gives his name as T. Y. Shung, and wears a number of Christian Endeavor badges.

The Chinamen all say he is not a Jap, but a Chinaman.

Mardl Gras at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27 .- Shrove Tuesday opened auspiciously with ideal carnival weather, and with a tremendous crowd on the streets, many distinguished people being among the visitors. The rex parade started at 11 o'clock. Tuesday night his majesty held a magnificent reception at Washington artillery hall, and was visited by both Comus and Protous and their queens. The Comus parade Tuesday night brought the carnival pageant to an end, and the exclusive ball at the French opera house was a brilliant closing function. Mr. Frank Howard, son of the late lottery king, impersonated rex. The subject chosen this year by rex was "Fergus Hume's Chronicles of Fairyland."

Peculiarly Painful Accident. POMEROY, O., Feb. 27.-Miss Emma

Kessler, daughter of a prominent miller of this city, met with a peculiarly painful accident Tuesday. She was curling her hair with a hot curlingiron. The iron was too hot for use and she was swinging it through the air to cool it, at the same time conversing with her mother. By some means she struck the iron into her eye, burning that organ so severely that she will probably lose it.

Many Killed in Battle.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. - A special cable from Panama says: News has been received from Buenventura of a battle near Cali, in which the rebels were defeated. Many were killed on both sides. The government forces captured a large body of prisoners. Fourteen hundred government troops are marching rapidly against Curtigo, which, it is reported, has been seized by the rebels.

Murdered at a Dance.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 27 .- At Belmore, near Deshler, Tuesday evening, Wm. Biddings and Joseph Lee quarreled at a dance over the privilege of dancing with a cousin of the latter. Going outside they renewed the quarrel, when Lee attacked Biddings with a club, beating him to death. The murderer was arrested.

REVOLUTION.

Another Uprising on the Distracted Island of Cuba.

The Twice Banished Marti Again the Leader of the Insurgents.

Gen. Comez is the Commander-in-Chief-Equipped for Battle-The Revolu-tion Was Planued in New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.-The Herald said Tuesday morning in regard to the revolutionary outbreak in Cuba, which was announced Monday night: Cipher dispatches received here by members of the Cuban revolutionary party, to whom the date set for the uprising has been known since February a, told that the revolt had been begun Jose Marti, twice banished from Cuban soil because of his hate of Spanish domination, and Gev. Maximo Comez, who commanded the eastern wing of the Cuban rebels in the revolution of 1868, left New York two weeks ago for Vera Cruz, and the news received Monday night from Cuba tells that they have landed, for their arrival was to be the signal for the uprising. This movement will be known as the Marti revolution for it is Jose Marti, now on Cuban soil for the third time, who will be at the head of the provisional government if the revolutionists are successful.

Gen. Gomez, who accompanied him, is the commander-in-chief of the revolutionary forces.

The Cuban leaders here, in league with the revolutionists of the island and sympathizers in the United States, Mexico and the South American republies have long been preparing for the event, the inception of which is announced in the cablegram above.

Ybarra, where one wing of the patriot party has raised its standard, is about 66 miles east of Havana, on the west of the island.

The scene of the other uprising mentioned in the Havana dispatches, Guantanamo, is on the east end of the island, and the fact that these widely separated places were given prominence was accepted by Cubans in New York Monday night to mean that the uprising extended throughout the island and that the Spanish authorities were attempting to belittle its extent. The revolutionary forces in the eastern section of the island which includes Guantanamo, are commanded by Brig. Gen. Gillermo Moncada.

It is estimated that he can raise 4,000

Gens. Gomez and Marti were expected to land on the south coast, but there is some uncertainty about their exact destination, as they are forced to move with great caution, and had gone to Vera Cruz for the purpose of deceiving the Spanish authorities, who were expecting trouble from another quarter,

Men who are high in the councils of the Cuban party here, and who were entrusted with the date set for the uprising, said Monday night that, with the arms which have been smuggled into Cuba during the last few weeks, and which were landed near Matanzas and other ports, and those already in the possession of the patriot forces.
